

SITE

01. There are more than 43,000 impact craters with diameters greater than 5 kilometers.

02. The larger cracks are more than 100 metres long and up to 10 metres wide

03. The cracks are naturally developed on Mars surface and it can be potentially used to build below ground structure as excavating the ground is more simpler